HIGHLAND CELLULAR, INC.
TTY REPORT
CC Docket No. 94-102
October 15, 2002

1. Network infrastructure software development
    Highland Cellular, Inc. is using a Nortel DMS-MTX Supernode Sized Enhanced switch to provide TDMA digital wireless services throughout its market. Software load is on current MTX10.

2. Handset development and testing plans
    Highland Cellular, Inc. is in the process of receiving in test phones and terminals to work with the local PSAPS and check for compatibility.

3. Beta testing and lab testing
    Highland Cellular, Inc. must rely on Nortel and handset vendors for initial conformance testing. It is Highland's understanding that this has been completed.

4. Release and general availability to carrier of network infrastructure software
    Highland Cellular, Inc. has implemented the software recommended by Nortel that should adapt the agreed upon TTY solution.

5. Availability to carriers of full acceptance test units
    Highland Cellular, Inc. is awaiting software and hardware that is available from handset vendors.

6. Efforts toward achieving digital wireless solution compatibility with enhanced TTY devices
    Highland Cellular, Inc. has upgraded its switching software to comply with TTY solutions.

7. Carrier coordination of testing with PSAP
    See response to item 2 above.

8. Carrier testing activities, including field testing, consumer end-to-end testing, and other necessary tests
    Highland Cellular, Inc. will begin testing activities when the handsets are received.

9. Retail availability of necessary consumer equipments
    The handsets are available. Awaiting arrival.

10. Geographic scope of network infrastructure deployment
    Highland Cellular, Inc. currently has two RSAs: WV7 and VA2-A2. Its central office is located in Beckley WV.

Respectfully Submitted

_Jamie Stoots_____

40657.1:999914:00014